(TURN OVER)

Participant/Guest has read the POSTED and the following warnings and understands Participant/Guest is assuming the risk of serious injury or death through the participation and/or in the presence of equine activities:

WARNING: Under Kansas Law (K.S.A. 60-4001 through 60 – 4004), an equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. You are assuming the risk of participating in this domestic activity.

Inherent risks of domestic animal activities include, but shall not be limited to:

1. The propensity of domestic animals to behave in ways (i.e., running, bucking, biting, kicking, shying, stumbling, rearing, falling or stepping on) that may result in an injury, harm or death to persons on or around them;
2. The unpredictability of a domestic animal's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals;
3. Certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions;
4. Collisions with other domestic animals or objects; and
5. The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the domestic animal or not acting within such participant's ability.

Additionally, I am aware of the risks of contracting COVID-19 or other illnesses while participating in equine activities at Wood's Edge Equestrian Center/REACH. I am also aware that face to face activities may increase my risk of contracting and spreading illnesses and hold harmless Wood's Edge Equestrian Center/REACH, staff, volunteers and all others I may come in contact with while at Wood's Edge.

I/WE have read and do understand the foregoing warnings, release of liability and indemnification, and assumption of risk.
