Show Rules

- 1) All exhibitors are to be safely attired. Helmets are required. Formal attire is not required.
- 2) Classes may be combined or split depending on entries; at show management discretion. Show management reserves the right to refuse any entry. Judge's decision is final.
- 3) All dressage tests must be videoed from "C" in a ring as close to actual measurements as possible with dressage letters or suitable markers visible.
- 4) All videos must be unedited and videoed between the opening and closing dates of the show. Please try to make the video as much like the judge would see from a judges box (avoid over zooming; entire horse and rider must be visible). Muted videos will not be accepted. Readers allowed.
- 5) Videos and entry forms must be submitted by the closing date at 10pm. Video links are only accepted via YouTube.
- 6) All copyright rules must be adhered to when submitting videos, FCEA will not be liable for any costs incurred as a result of infringement of any copyright laws by any competitor or third party.
- 7) 6 virtual ribbons will be awarded per class.
- 8) Exhibitors will receive a test complete with judge's comments and will be emailed within 3 days after the show.
- 9) This show will count toward year end awards as judged score; no additional weighting will be added.
- 10) A still photo (current or older one) of horse and rider is requested to be used on social media when posting results.

I enclose herewith a total of $_____ for the aforementioned entry, which is made at my own risk and subject to the conditions of the organizer and the sponsoring French Creek Equestrian Association. I agree to abide by the rules which cover this event as set forth by the USA Equestrian.

I understand that this is a high-risk sport, and that my participation in this activity may also involve participation in an "equine activity" as defined by applicable laws and is solely at my own risk. I understand that my participation involves inherent risks associated with the dangers and conditions which are integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to, the propensity of equines to behave in ways which may result in injury, harm or even death to humans or other animals around or near them; the unpredictability of equine reaction to sounds, sudden movements, smells, and unfamiliar objects; persons or other animals; hazards related to surface and subsurface conditions; collisions with other equines or objects; and the potential of a participant to act in a negligent or unskilled manner which may contribute to injury to the participant or others, including failing or inability to maintain control over the animal. By participating in this activity I agree to assume responsibility for those risks, and I release and agree to hold harmless the activity organizer, organizing committee, officials, the FCEA, their officers, agents, employees, and the volunteers assisting in the conduct of this FCEA activity and the owners of the property on which it is being held, from all liability for negligence resulting in accidents, damage, injury or illness to myself and to my property, including the horse(s) which I may ride.

I understand and agree that the organizer of this activity has the right to cancel this activity; to refuse any entry or application; to require and enforce the wearing of safety or other attire and the conduct of riders, horses, and visitors; and to prohibit, stop or control any action during the activity deemed by the organizer to be improper or unsafe.
