Lois Yukins USA FEI 4* & USEF S Dressage Judge

Lois grew up in Birmingham/Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. She was in Pony Club and rode Equitation, Hunter/Jumpers, as well as fox hunting with the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. After a serious jumping accident she became more focused on Dressage. She has trained horses and riders throughout the levels and owned two training facilities over the years.

Lois became a National Dressage Judge in the early 70's and an FEI Dressage Judge since 1999. She has judged throughout the United States, Canada, Central and South America, Mexico, Asia, New Zealand, Australia, and England. She was on the panel to judge the 2014 Asian Games in Korea.

Along with her International and National Judging, Lois is a trainer and examiner of judges in the US from the L Graduate Level to our Senior Judges. Lois is the Chair of the USDF L Education Program, a member of the USDF Judges Committee, USEF Dressage Committee and the USEF Licensed Official Committee. She lives on the North Shore of Boston in Manchester By The Sea.

Terry Ciotti Gallo Klassic Kur Freestyle Designer

Terry's broad and colorful history in sports, dance, and music stretches over 30 years. She started as a theatrical choreographer where her works were seen in various media. However with a background as a competitive gymnast, she also acted as a dance instructor, choreographer, coach, and judge for international-caliber gymnastics. Terry coupled the sports world with her dance and music knowledge to help a variety of athletes in the total development of their freestyle performances. This led to the establishment of Klassic Kur in 1989.

Since that time, her freestyles have appeared in the Olympics, World Equestrian Games, Pan American Games, and hold two World Cup titles. She currently serves on both the USDF Freestyle Committee (six years as chair), USDF Judges Committee, is the main architect for the Continuing Education Program in Freestyle for Judges and received the USDF 2014 Volunteer of the Year award.
